

Attachment A- Student collaborations at SNS structures – third call 2022

code	Description of collaboration	requisites	period	Person in charge	No. coll	Hours per coll.	Total hours
SEC – peer tutoring	Collaborators must provide support and assistance on request to students of the undergraduate and PhD courses, with particular regard to those who have now entered the first year: the activities must concern the main study regulations (study plans, interviews and seminars, bibliographic research, internal and university examinations) as well as information and referral to the services of the SNS able to meet the needs of the single individuals. The collaborators will be able to carry out their activities at the request of individual students and/or plan group activities both with students who are recipients of the service and with each other to plan and devise new orientation initiatives within the context of the Scuola Normale. They will be coordinated and supported by the staff of the Cultural Events and Career Services	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> -Knowledge of the SNS context in terms of study regulations and services available to the students of the SNS - aptitude towards exchange of views and dialogue - willingness to support others 	From assignment to June 2023	Elisa Guidi	30	75	225