I am a Psychologist, Certified Transactional Analysis Psychotherapist and I am a PTSTA in the clinical field of EATA (European Association Transactional Analysis) with expertise in group psychotherapy. I deal with adolescents and adults in the treatment of anxiety disorders, mood disorders and personality disorders, in both individual and group settings. I work as a community psychologist and psychotherapist, as chief of the psychological area in an addiction therapeutic community. I am an expert in Sport Psychology, dealing with mental training, consultancy and training at sports clubs.
