

PhD Course in Classics, 42° cycle– a.y. 2026/2027 – Scholarship with a specific topic

Autobiographical poems by Gregory of Nazianzus: edition and commentary

The candidate will carry out a research project focused on the critical edition, translation, and commentary of one or more autobiographical poetic texts by Gregory of Nazianzus. The translation of Gregory's text must also be prepared in English. The candidate's research activity will be conducted within a research group focused on the theme of Greek autobiography; seminars and meetings will be organized to enhance specific training on this topic. The candidate's research project must specify the texts they intend to study and outline the philological and interpretive innovations they aim to achieve.