

Imag : Colin Lloyd - <https://unsplash.com>

19-20 OCTOBER
2026
h 9:00 - 18:00

Aula Simone del Pollaiolo
Scuola Normale Superiore
Piazza degli Strozzi, 1
50123, Firenze

ORGANIZER
Sarrah Kassem

Web Site

INFO
sarrah.kassem@sns.it
eventiculturali@sns.it

INTERSECTIONAL SOLIDARITY AND LABOR ORGANIZING

Toward Just and Collective Futures

Final workshop Marie Skłodowska-Curie project INFALA

KEY THEMES

Intersectional Lived Experiences:

Exploring how race, gender, migration, and class shape the everyday realities of workers.

Solidarity & Organizing:

Forms of intersectional solidarity and labor organizing among workers.

Sectoral & Regional Case Studies:

Focus on specific sectors or movements (e.g., platform workers, data workers, care workers, logistics, agriculture).

Mobilization Strategies:

Grassroots organizing, union initiatives, coalition-building, and community-based strategies.

Theoretical Frameworks:

Theoretical engagement with racial capitalism and social reproduction theory.

Methodology & Ethics:

Methodological and ethical reflections on conducting research within these spaces.

This workshop is supported by Sarrah Kassem's Marie Skłodowska-Curie Postdoctoral Fellowship, Grant number: 101146425 (Horizon Europe, European Union).

This workshop is also co-funded by COSMOS

centre on social movement
studies